Offering a Selection of Vestments made by American Craftsmen

ORDER NOW!
VESTMENTS GLADLY
SENT ON APPROVAL

The Vestments offered in this bulletin are carefully selected from a large line and each is an outstanding value at its price.

You will find good and serviceable Vestments listed as low as $12.50 and PURE silk (silk-worm) garments costing $66.00 and $82.00 respectively.

All materials are woven by skilled American craftsmen. Some of the patterns are ORIGINAL liturgical designs created by an authority on liturgical art.

All materials are RUBRICAL — as the Sacred Congregation of Rites has graciously permitted the use of rayon owing to the scarcity of pure silk (silk-worm).

These stories contain the very foundation of our faith and can be readily used for study and text books, particularly for the lower grades in our parochial schools, as well as in the home.

Father Lord has again, in these new books, written not only a most interesting series of stories for children but also an ideal form of study to acquaint the children with the beginning of our religion.

The books contain illustrations from original paintings; starting with the Garden of Eden, Our Lord's Boyhood, to the end of Our Saviour's active life, of teaching and of miracles. The pictures give an added incentive for interesting the children in these instructive books.

ANOTHER FINE BOOK FOR CATHOLIC CHILDREN

"THE LIFE OF THE BLESSED MOTHER"

by

Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S. J.

Contains 20 Illustrations, Colored Borders on Each Page

This attractive book tells us the beautiful story of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Many of us know so little about our Mother in heaven that we could read this story of her life with much profit.

Children, above all, can receive a wealth of pious instruction from a book such as this, for it was written especially for them. The language is simple, and can be easily understood by young people. It is supplemented by beautiful black and white drawings from original paintings.

This inspiring story begins with our Blessed Mother's saintly childhood at Nazareth. As it unfolds, we read of Mary's great part in the Redemption and of her holy life of service and devotion to her Divine Son. All these grand events—from the first Christmas to the first Good Friday, and even beyond; to the Resurrection and to Mary's glorious Assumption into heaven—are told in the glowing language of childhood.

A TRUE COPY OF THE ORIGINAL TEXT IN ALL ITS BEAUTY

Especially Adapted for Schools

"This little volume will appeal to many and widely different groups but especially to our more progressive High School and College classes in religion where the text of the Gospel narrative is always at the student's elbow; where the aim is not only to outline dogmatic and moral theology but to bring up a generation of the Catholic laity familiar with the Bible."

—Rev. ROBERT I. GANNON, S.J.
President of Fordham University

Translated from the Latin Vulgate, diligently compared with the original Greek text, it was first published by the English College at Rheims in A.D. 1582, and was revised by Dr. Challoner in 1752.

Beloved throughout the English-speaking world for its matchless spiritual unction, and for the purity and beauty of its English diction, it is the only text of the NEW TESTAMENT with which the faithful in general are familiar.

In its language the dogmas of the Church have become enshrined and so have been transmitted from age to age.

VERONICA WIPES THE FACE OF JESUS

V. We adore Thee, O Christ, and bless Thee.

R. Because by Thy holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

CONSIDER how the holy woman named Veronica, seeing Jesus so ill-used, and His face bathed in sweat and blood, presented Him with a towel, with which He wiped His adorable Face, leaving on it the impression of His holy countenance.

My most beloved Jesus! Thy Face was beautiful before, but in this journey it has lost all its beauty, and Brethren: rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice. Let your moderation be known to all men. The Lord is near. Have no anxiety, but in every prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your petitions be made known to God. And may the peace of God which surpasses all understanding guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus, our Lord.
